The above works, performed in public by M. Alexandre Bilet, with distinguished success, are published by Wessel and Co., 229, Regent street, London.

Now ready, price 2s. bound in cloth, or with paper covers, 1s. 6d.; with a Preface in defence of the English Chant:—

The Anglican Chant Book.—A collection of Single Chants, chiefly by composers of the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth Centuries, appropriated to the Daily Psalms, Canticles, and Hymns in the Book of Common Prayer. Edited by EDWIN GEORGE MONK, Mus. Bac., Oxon., Fellow and Precentor of St. Peter's College, Radley.

London: J. Alfred Novello, 69, Dean-street, Soho.
Oxford: John Henry Parker.

A handsome Edition, on large paper, with red border lines, price 4s.

* * * The Chants are given in Vocal Score, with an Accompaniment for the use of Amateurs.

"We are disposed to regard this Work with considerable favour."—English Churchman.

"The present Work,—whose object is to furnish a complete series of Anglican Chants, or a collection of music the spirit and form of which is in perfect keeping with the character and the requisitions of the English Church Service,—is one of such high merit, evincing so great zeal, and judgment, and care in its compilation, as to deserve the attention of all whom the subject concerns. * * * We confidently recommend the Publication as in every respect fitted for general use."—Musical World.

"An excellent collection of Single Chants, arranged for the course of the Psalter, and affording unmistakable evidence of the judgment and taste of a well-educated musician."—Parish Choir.

The Psalter, with Chants, Pointed for the use of Choirs and Congregations. 4to size, 14s.; 8vo. size, 10s. 6d.; Pocket size, either Score or Accompaniment Copy, 3s. 6d. Novello, 69, Dean-street; and Rivington, St. Paul's Church-yard.

This work strictly conforms to the established mode of chanting at Cathedrals and Collegiate Chapels. No innovation is attempted, for none seems desirable. A slight difference in the pointing of the several editions is observable, from an improvement having been effected since the first issue of the 4to. Edition. The difference is unimportant, but will be removed in future Editions. The warmest testimonials can be produced from Choirs which have adopted into use this work; amongst which is the following from Winchester Cathedral:—

Winchester, April 1st, 1851.

My dear Sir,

I gladly comply with your request, that I should express in writing my opinion respecting your Psalter. You are aware of the pains I had taken, and with how little comparative success, to improve the Chanting of the daily Psalms. The adoption of your Book accomplished the improvement I had long aimed at, working an entire reform in this part of the Service. It is not easy to overrate its utility. In the first place, it appoints good Chants, and excludes bad ones, thereby saving the trouble of making a daily selection. The choice of suitable Chants, (I must add), in consequence of the dearth of unexceptionable Compositions of this kind, was, notwithstanding the largeness of our collection, a matter of some difficulty. But the especial advantage of your Work consists, I think, in placing the music together with the words, in one volume, before the Singers, and enabling them, by means of the accents which you have introduced, to speak the same word together, so as to be readily followed by the Congregation. There is no longer any hurry or indistinctness on the part of the Choir, nor any uncertainty about the Organ accompaniment. These important results I believe to be unattainable without such assistance as is furnished by the admirable arrangement adopted in your Book; and, from my experience of its value, I should rejoice to see Dr. Wesley's Psalter introduced into all our Cathedrals.

Believe me, my dear Sir, your's very truly,

W. NIXON HOOPER,
Precentor of Winchester.
